

Mr. Broughton is founder and president of Atlanta CFO Services. Prior to forming Atlanta CFO he served as staff accountant with KPMG. He has over twenty years of diverse financial management experience including information systems and M&A. Mr. Broughton also worked in the internal audit department of Alumax, a subsidiary of Alcoa. He currently serves as Director of the Georgia Society of CPA's Leadership Academy and also CFO of 3Ti (automated blood analyzers). Georgia licensed CPA. Mr. Broughton is also a Chartered Global Management Accountant (CGMA) as designated by the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA). BBA-Notre Dame.